Sprynczynatyk discussed LARL’s Reserves as of January 1, 2018 and projected Reserves as of January 1, 2019. Currently, there is a 31% (3.7 months) Operating Reserve and overall reserves are 47% of budget. Projected for January 1, 2019, after increasing the Operating Reserve to 33% (4 months), LARL should have total reserves of around 45% of budget.

The committees discussed the reserves and were comfortable with LARL’s current reserves position. If reserves trend over 50%, reducing budgeted income will be considered in the future.

(Ingersoll/Dailey) Move to approve payment of the Directors and Officers Insurance Policy/Employment Practices Liability Insurance. MCU.

Sprynczynatyk discussed Preliminary Draft #1 of the 2019 LARL budget. The draft contains a 1.5% increase to signatories, resulting in $37,655 of additional funding. Regional Basic System Support (RLBSS) has been budget at the same level as 2018 as the actual funding amount from the State of MN will not be known until August. Health Insurance has been estimated to have an 8% increase, the actual increase will not be known until August. A 2.5% increase to Library Materials has been included, as this line item has had no or very small increases for the past several years. This budget results in a deficit of $72,029.

DIRECTOR’S REPORT

The Crookston Library Assistant position has been filled by Corene Everett, who previously worked at the Crookston Library.

In May, LARL will launch an I LOVE MY LIBRARY campaign, to raise funds for the purchase of materials.

The Crookston Public Library has been actively working to raise the $25,000 matching donation from the Otto Bremer Trust, with a need of $8,000 remaining.

Lynch discussed a book agreement with the Department of Education. MDE will purchase and donate approximately 100 items for an American Indian collection. LARL will make the items available for interlibrary loan. LARL will receive reimbursement for the processing and cataloging costs.

A joint powers agreement will be prepared by MDE. At this time the LARL Board needs to approve the content of the Joint Powers Agreement. After the content is approved, an agreement will be prepared and signed.
