JUNE EVENTS

Adult and Teen Felting

Wednesday, June 5 from 2:00-4:00pm

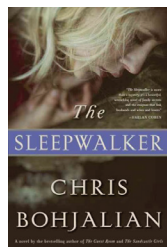

Adults and teens are invited to join us for a class on needle felting. This month, we'll learn how to create a colorful background with a tree. This class is offered free of charge and is open to people of all levels of experience. Supplies will be provided.

Leatherbacks Book Club

Thursday, June 6 from 6:30 – 8:00pm

All are welcome to join us to discuss “The Sleepwalker” by Chris Bohjalian, which tells the story of Annalee Ahlberg, a sleepwalker who goes missing, throwing her family and community into chaos.

Adult and Teen Watercolor Class

Wednesday, June 19 from 2:00 – 4:00pm

Develop your watercolor skills with this Watercolor Class for adults and teens. This time, we'll be using watercolor paints and pencils to paint a seahorse. This class is offered free of charge and is appropriate for all experience levels.

JULY EVENTS

Adult and Teen Felting

Wednesday, July 3 from 2:00-4:00pm

Adults and teens are invited to join us for a class on needle felting. This month, we'll learn how to create a picture of a seahorse. This class is offered free of charge and is open to people of all levels of experience. Supplies will be provided.

Leatherbacks Book Club

Thursday, July 11 from 6:30 – 8:00pm

Join the Leatherbacks Book Club to discuss “The Daisy Children” by Sofia Grant. In this book, two cousins begin sorting through their grandmother’s possessions and discover hidden truths about their shared history and the long-forgotten tragedy of the New London school explosion of 1937. All are welcome to join the conversation!

Adult and Teen Watercolor Class

Wednesday, July 17 from 2:00 – 4:00pm

Develop your watercolor skills with this Watercolor Class for adults and teens. This time, we'll be using watercolor paints and pencils to paint a fox portrait. This class is offered free of charge and is appropriate for all experience levels.

AUGUST EVENTS

Leatherbacks Book Club

Thursday, August 1 from 6:30 – 8:00pm

Join us to discuss “Etched in Sand” by Regina Calcaterra. This memoir tells what Calcuterra and her siblings experienced as youth who were intermittently homeless and lived in a series of foster homes in the shadow of the Hamptons.

Adult and Teen Felting

Wednesday, August 7 from 2:00-4:00pm

Adults and teens are invited to join us for a class on needle felting. This month, we'll learn how to create a friendly fox face. This class is offered free of charge and is open to people of all levels of experience. Supplies will be provided.

EXPLORE!

Summer Library Experience

Events at the ADA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Blast off!

Tuesday, June 11 at 6:00 p.m.

We'll launch our great space adventure by decorating the library and making rocket ships. Plus, take your photo in the library's space ship and test how far you can launch our rocket!

The Lion and the Mouse

Thursday, June 13 at 6:30 p.m.

Experience the power of live theatre with a performance of "The Lion & the Mouse", a mini-play intended for children ages 3-10. Discover the story of a mouse who dreams of being a superhero who can travel to outer space! Learn about being kind, fair and how big things come in small packages. This event is offered free of charge thanks to the Minnesota Legacy Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund.

Our Solar System

Thursday, June 27 at 6:00 p.m.

Discover the solar system and decide which part is your favorite, plus create a planet with marble paint and a 3-D model of Saturn.

Space Artwork Activity

Thursday, July 11

Paint, draw or color your own space adventure to display in the library. You could win a prize! This activity is available all day.

Explore the Universe

Thursday, July 18 at 6:00 p.m.

This week we'll create star maps to find our way through the universe and rockets to launch into space.

Music of the Mississippi Harmonica

Thursday, July 25 at 6:30 p.m.

Join us for an out-of-this-world performance by the Everett Smithson Band. The band will perform music familiar to the Mississippi River region, including rockabilly, blues music and more. Plus a short harmonica lesson with free harmonicas for children will be offered after the show. Admission is free, thanks to funding from the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund.

Exploring Aliens

Thursday, August 8, 2019 at 6:00 p.m.

What do you think Aliens look like? Create your own alien and a flying saucer to go adventuring in. This event will conclude with a prize drawing.
