Garden Pollinators with Laughing Earth

Tuesday, June 8 at 6:30 p.m.

Butterflies, bees, and other pollinators need your help. Can you give them what they need in your yard? Laughing Earth will lead this project on the lawn east of the library, unless we need to use the shelter west of the Dekko due to weather.

The Immigrant Game

Tuesday, June 15 at 6:30 p.m.

From 150 years ago to today, people from around the world have been coming to make this place their home. We will play a group game exploring the immigrant experience of six real people from local history with Markus Krueger from the Historical and Cultural Society of Clay County.

Story Stroll: Croc & Turtle

Tuesday, June 15 from 12 - 8 p.m.

Walk the sidewalk at the Library, and let the story unfold.

Going on a Bear Hunt

Tuesday, June 29 at 6:30 p.m.

Examine bear tracks, food and stories. Bailey Bear will encourage you to write your story too.

Yard Games

Tuesday, July 13 at 6:30 p.m.

Can you make a game using pool noodles and balls or chalk? Play a variety of games on the Library lawn and sidewalks. Rain date will be July 20.

Solar Ovens and Story Stroll: Ten Pigs!

Tuesday, July 27 from 12 - 8 p.m.

Walk the sidewalk at the Library, and let the story unfold. Then, come in to the Library and pick up a kit to make a Pizza Box Solar Oven (complements of West Main Pizza) perfect for making s'mores in the summer sun.

Events held outdoors on the lawn east of the library unless wet weather moves us to the shelter west of the Dekko.
