Summer Library Experience

Events at the CLIMAX PUBLIC LIBRARY

Small Town Saturday

Saturday, June 5 at 11:45 am

Meet us at the library to get a t-shirt and walk in the parade together.

Corn Husk Dolls and Native Teachings

Tuesday, June 8 from 2 - 4 pm

Lolly Aguilar is an artist and teacher from the Otomoi Nation who will lead the kids in creating their own corn husk doll, while telling traditional stories. Youth will pick out a cherry tomato plant to place in the Library garden.

Bead People Peace Project

Tuesday, June 22 from 2 - 4 pm

Jamie Lee will lead this workshop where kids will bring to life their own bead person and get a copy of her book "The Wind of a Thousand Years." (www.thebeadpeople.org)

Going on a Bear Hunt

Tuesday, June 29 from 2 - 4 pm

Candace Osborn will lead us on a bear hunt- exploring tracks, food, and stories! Bailey Bear will help kids to tell their stories, too.

Explore the Fire Hall

Tuesday, July 13 from 2 - 4 pm

The Climax Fire Department will open the Fire Hall and bring out a firetruck for kids to explore. Firefighters in gear will be on hand to answer questions. Afterwards, we'll come back to Library and check out some books on the subject.

Mosaic Garden Stakes

Tuesday, July 20 from 2 - 4 pm

Jo McFarlin will lead us in a mosaic workshop. Youth can plant their stake in the Library garden or take them home.

Finale! Go fly a kite

Tuesday, July 27 from 2 - 4 pm

Each kid will get to decorate a kite, then we will take them out to the Sand Hill Settlement (1/2 mi hike) to fly them. We'll return to the Library for Chalk Art, treats and prizes. Plus, harvest your cherry tomatoes!
