Events at the MOORHEAD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Summer Library Experience

Kickoff: Pet Show

Tuesday, June 8 from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Join us in the library's parking lot and show off your pet! Dogs and cats, frogs and hamsters, stuffed animals and dragons...all are welcome. This event kicks off a series of fun events at the library.

One Vegetable One Community

Wednesday, June 16 from 2 – 3 p.m.

One Vegetable, One Community is coming to the Moorhead Public Library! Join us to learn about gardening and zucchini growing while hearing a fun story.

The Immigrant Game

Wednesday, June 23 from 2 – 3 p.m.

From 150 years ago to today, people from around the world have been coming to make this place their home. We will play a group game exploring the immigrant experience of six real people from local history with Markus Krueger from the Historical and Cultural Society of Clay County.

Current health and safety guidelines relating to the COVID-19 pandemic will be followed.

Butterfly Feeder Craft

Wednesday, June 30

Visit the library to pick up a kit and make your own butterfly feeder. Make sure the beautiful bugs come to your blooming backyard during their migration. The take-home kits are available free-of-charge.

Take Home Scavenger Hunt

Wednesday, July 7

Time to get outside in the great outdoors and see what you can discover! Pick up a Scavenger Hunt Challenge sheet from the library and find natural treasures from your backyard to the park.

Mask Decoration

Wednesday, July 14 from 2 – 3 p.m.

Masks have been everywhere for over a year, but isn't it time we got to have a little fun with fashion? Come to the library and decorate a mask!

Postcard Party

Wednesday, July 21 from 2 – 3 p.m.

Come to the library to design and send a postcard to a friend, a hero, or a family member! All postage is pre-paid and supplies will be provided.

Finale: Finger Painting Mural

Wednesday, July 28 from 2 – 3 p.m.

Help us decorate as a reminder of the fun summer we had! Dip your hands in paint and help us make a mural, and make a handprint of your own to bring home.
