Be a Friend!

Join the Friends of the Breckenridge Public Library and discover the many opportunities to promote your library and strengthen its programs!

Objectives
- To assist the staff and Library Board in making the Breckenridge Public Library an educational and recreational force in the community.
- To focus attention on the Library’s services, facilities, and needs.
- To provide financial aid for Library needs that are not possible through traditional channels.
- To encourage contributions and memorials.
- To advocate for the library and spread awareness of its available resources and services within the community.

Accomplishments
- Hosting book sales.
- Sponsoring adult events and reading programs.
- Continuously supporting activities for youth of all ages including Storytime, Teen Friends of the Library, and the Summer Library Experience.
- Providing funds to purchase items for the library and for customer use. This includes the new gallery hanging system to host traveling exhibits and display artwork in the library, as well as new furniture, toy bins, DVD player, Wii console and games, LEGO sets, MakeDo cardboard construction system, board games, and more.
